Existing Bylaw –9.06 DISCIPLINE AND APPEALS COMMISSIONER

9.06.1 The Discipline and Appeals Commissioner is appointed by the Executive for a two year term.

9.06.2 The function of the Discipline and Appeals Commissioner is to rule on disciplinary issues submitted to the Commissioner pursuant to RMLL Bylaws and Regulations, set up Appeal Hearings and appoint Appeal Committees, hear game protests and complaints against any Member or Member of Members of the RMLL. The Discipline and Appeals Commissioner, or his or her delegate, when requested, shall also interpret RMLL Bylaws and Regulations when the issue relates to disciplinary action.

Proposed Bylaw:

Change to:

9.06.2 The function of the Discipline and Appeals Commissioner is as set out elsewhere in these Bylaws and in the Regulations.

Comment [TE1]:

Rationale:

Because the existing bylaw does not accurately reflect the role of the DAC.
